ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS

PETITIONER'S FIRST AMENDED NOTICE OF HEARING

This is your OFFICIAL NOTICE that a hearing will commence at 9:00 AM (CT) on APRIL 4TH, 2025, before an Administrative Law Judge. The hearing is being held via videoconference for the purpose of determining whether to issue a proposal for decision for the issuance of an ORDER FOR Smith Wealth Advisors, LLC's ("Respondent SWA") AND Ronald Dewayne Smith, Jr.'s ("Respondent Smith"), (collectively, "Respondents") REGISTRATIONS WITH THE SECURITIES COMMISSIONER OF TEXAS AS AN INVESTMENT ADVISER AND INVESTMENT ADVISER REPRESENTATIVE, RESPECTIVELY, TO BE REVOKED AND FOR RESPONDENT SWA AND RESPONDENT SMITH TO IMMEDIATELY CEASE AND DESIST FROM ENGAGING IN FRAUDULENT CONDUCT AND FOR RESPONDENT SWA AND RESPONDENT SMITH TO REFUND CERTAIN CLIENTS.

This hearing will be held pursuant to the Securities Act, Tex. Gov't Code §§ 4001.001-4008.105 (the "Securities Act"), the Rules and Regulations of the State Securities Board, 7 Tex. Admin. Code §§101.1-139.27 (2019) (Tex. State Sec. Bd.) (the "Board Rules"), the Administrative Procedure Act, Tex. Gov't Code Ann. §§2001.0012001.902 (the "Administrative Procedure Act"), and the Rules of Practice and Procedure of the State Office of Administrative Hearings, 1 Tex. Admin. Code Chapter 155 (2019) (State Ofc. of Admin. Hearings) (the "SOAH Rules").

THE RESPONDENTS

1. Respondent SWA is a for-profit domestic limited liability company¹ located at 4713 Eagle Feather Drive, Austin, TX 78735.²
2. On August 28, 2015, Respondent SWA registered as an investment adviser with the Securities Commissioner. This registration is currently effective.
3. Respondent Smith is a natural person, the registered agent, and sole owner, operator, and sole investment adviser representative of Respondent SWA.
4. On August 28, 2015, Respondent Smith registered as an investment adviser representative of Respondent SWA with the Securities Commissioner. This registration is currently effective.
5. Respondents provide asset management and financial planning services for their clients.

SUMMARY OF RELEVANT FACTS

From in or around March 2017 through at least June 2024 (the “Relevant Period”), Respondent Smith misappropriated approximately $1,423,330.56 from at least ten (10) clients.

6. Between July 10–12, 2024, the staff of the Texas State Securities Board (“Staff”) conducted an inspection of Respondent SWA (the “Inspection”) pursuant to Section 4007.052(a) of the Texas Securities Act.
7. During the Inspection, Staff found that from in or around March 2017 through at least June 2024, Respondent Smith misappropriated investor funds from at least ten (10) of Respondents’ clients.
8. Throughout the Relevant Period, Respondent Smith would have his clients issue a check or transfer funds to him or Respondent SWA’s personal or business accounts.
9. It was the clients’ understanding that the funds would be invested pursuant to the terms as described in the investment advisory contract provided to the clients.
10. Respondent Smith did not invest the clients’ funds.

¹ According to Texas Secretary of State records, on May 13, 2015, Respondent SWA filed its Certificate of Formation with the Texas Secretary of State. Its entity status is “in existence.”

² On October 22, 2024, Respondent Smith provided Staff with an up-to-date mailing address for Respondents.

11. Rather, Respondent Smith used these funds to pay off other clients³ and for his personal and business expenses.
12. For example, Respondent Smith had one client, Client A, transfer at least $128,436.26 to Respondents during the Relevant Period.
13. In one instance, Respondent Smith deposited a $35,000 check from Client A into Respondent SWA's bank account on March 20, 2017.
14. Client A understood that these funds were to be used for the purchase of an exchange traded note ("ETN").
15. Respondent Smith did not provide Client A any forms regarding the ETN purchase.
16. Later that year, on May 1, 2017 and again on June 1, 2017, Respondent Smith transferred $14,700 from Respondent SWA's bank account to Client A simulating "ETN payments."
17. And on June 30, 2017, August 1, 2017, and August 31, 2017, Respondent Smith transferred a total of $22,050 from Client A's brokerage account to Client A's personal checking account, again simulating "ETN payments."
18. Importantly, Respondent Smith never used Client A's $35,000 to purchase or invest in any ETN.
19. In another instance, Respondent Smith liquidated shares of Apple (AAPL) stock from Client A's account and disbursed the proceeds into two (2) checks totaling $20,470 to Client A which Respondent Smith then had Client A remit back to Respondent Smith via a $30,000 check made out to Respondent SWA.
20. According to Client A, the check was to invest in a "hot stock tip." The check's memo line even stated "investments."
21. The $30,000 from Client A was not transferred to fund a "hot stock tip" or used for any investment for Client A but was instead used to pay for Respondent Smith's personal expenses.
22. On January 24, 2019 and October 18, 2019, Respondent Smith deposited a $35,000 check and $20,000 check, respectively, from Client A into his Smith Wealth Real Estate⁴ ("SWRE") account. The memo lines of the checks were blank.

⁴ SWRE is a for-profit limited liability company registered to Respondent Smith which forfeited its existence in July 2023 pursuant to Section 171.302 of the Texas Tax Code due to a failure to pay corporation taxes to the Texas Comptroller.

23. And on March 26, 2024, Respondent Smith had Client A wire $8,436.26 from one of Client A's bank accounts into Respondent SWA's brokerage account.
24. Again, Respondents did not invest any of the money transferred from Client A to Respondents but was instead used to pay for Respondents' personal expenses.
25. In another example, Respondent Smith had another client of his, Client B, transfer a total of $498,500 to Respondents during the Relevant Period.
26. On December 6, 2017, Respondent Smith deposited a $20,000 cashier's check from Client B into his SWRE account. Respondents did not invest the $20,000 from Client B.
27. Then, on January 3, 2018, Respondent Smith deposited a $150,000 check from Client B into Respondent Smith's SWRE account. The memo line of the check was blank.
28. Respondent Smith withdrew $83,000 of the $150,000, spent another $33,456.56 on a Professional Golfers' Association of America ("PGA") charity event, transferred another $9,000 to his personal account, and wire transferred $1,500 back to Client B.
29. Then on April 1, 2019, Respondent Smith deposited another $25,000 check from Client B into his SWRE account. The memo line of the check stated "invest with."
30. Once again, Respondent Smith did not invest Client B's money. But rather, Respondent Smith used Client B's $25,000 for in-branch bank withdrawals and personal expenses.
31. Notably, Respondent Smith then issued a $3,000 cashier's check to Client A and a $20,000 cashier's check back to Client B seven (7) days after depositing the $25,000 check from Client B, on April 8, 2019. The purpose of the cashier's check to Client B is unknown.
32. On August 22, 2022, Respondent Smith received a $247,500 wire from Client B that was deposited into Respondent SWA's account. Respondents used this money from Client B for personal expenses.
33. And finally, on March 21, 2024, Respondent Smith had Client B issue a $56,000 check to Respondent SWA.
34. Respondent Smith deposited Client B's $56,000 check into Respondent SWA's bank account and used $24,500 of the funds to repay another client for overcharging of fees and wire transferred $25,978.11 to a bankruptcy attorney.
35. In another example, on December 21, 2020, Respondent Smith deposited four (4) checks from four (4) different clients totaling $289,394.30 into Respondent SWA's account. One of the check's memo lines stated "investment" while the three (3) other checks' memo lines were blank.

36. Respondent Smith did not invest any of the $289,394.30.
37. Notably, prior to receiving the $289,394.30 from the four clients, Respondent Smith had deposited four (4) different checks totaling $286,000 from Client C into his SWRE account. The memo lines of the checks were blank.
38. Respondent Smith used the $286,000 from Client C for personal expenses, $107,113 for cashier's checks, $600 for transfers to Client B, and at least $48,000 on real estate service providers.
39. Two (2) days after receiving the $289,394.30 from the four (4) clients, Respondent Smith used the funds to issue a check to Client C in the amount of $286,000.
40. Respondent Smith also had one of the four (4) clients ("Client D") issue two (2) checks in the amount of $100,000 each in March 2022 and November 2022 to Respondent SWA.
41. Again, Respondent Smith deposited the checks from Client D into Respondent SWA's bank account and used the funds for in-branch bank withdrawals and personal expenses. The checks were not used to invest Client D's money.
42. Respondent Smith also had three (3) other clients ("Client E," "Client F," and "Client G") issue checks to Respondent SWA or SWRE totaling $21,000.⁵
43. In total, Respondent Smith misappropriated approximately $1,423,330.56 from ten (10) clients during the Relevant Period.
44. The client funds, which clients believed were for investment purposes were never invested. Rather, the funds were deposited or transferred into Respondent Smith's and Respondent SWA's personal and business accounts belonging to and controlled by Respondent Smith.
45. Respondent Smith has not repaid all the client funds that were deposited or transferred into his personal and business accounts.⁶
46. Respondent Smith did not inform his clients that the clients' funds would be used for personal expenses, to repay other clients, or for any other purpose that was not to invest the clients' funds.

⁶ Respondent Smith has at least repaid Client A $14,700 from his business account for "ETN payments" and issued her a $30,000 check, transferred approximately $12,600 to Client B as "dividend payments" and issued him a $56,000 check, repaid Client C by way of funds received from four (4) different clients, and issued Clients F and G checks totaling $13,000.

47. Respondent Smith's failures to inform his clients that the clients' funds would be used for non-investment purposes were intentional failures to disclose material facts and constitute fraud or fraudulent business practices.
48. Respondent Smith's uses of client funds to make payments to other clients and for personal and business expenses constitute fraudulent business practices.
49. Pursuant to Section 4007.105(a)(3)(B), Respondent Smith's fraudulent business practices constitute bases for revoking Respondents' registrations with the Securities Commissioner.
50. Further, Respondent Smith did not engage an independent public accountant to examine the activity in his personal and business accounts or maintain accounting records relating to his activities as having custody over the client funds deposited or transferred into his accounts for investment purposes.
51. Respondent Smith's control over client funds in his personal and business accounts constitutes "custody" of client funds and securities by Respondent SWA as the term is defined by §116.17(b) of the Rules and Regulations of the Texas State Securities Board ("Board Rules").
52. Respondent SWA violated §116.17(b) of the Board Rules because Respondent SWA maintained custody of client funds and securities but failed to implement the safeguards required by §116.17(b)(4).
53. Pursuant to Section 4007.105(a)(13)(B), Respondent SWA's violation of §116.17(b) of the Board Rules constitutes a basis for revoking Respondent SWA's registration with the Securities Commissioner.

Respondents have not responded timely to Staff's request letters for information as a result of two (2) customer complaints Staff received.

54. On July 15, 2024 and September 16, 2024, Staff sent Respondents two (2) different request letters ("Complaint Request Letters") for information as a result of two (2) customer complaints Staff received.
55. In part, the request letter sent on September 16, 2024 ("2nd Complaint Letter") alleged that over the ten (10) years that the complainant was a client of Respondents, that Respondents misappropriated funds from the complainant by insisting she wire or issue a check to Respondents.

56. To date, Respondents have not provided records responsive to the Staff's Complaint Request Letters that were due on August 31, 2024 and October 16, 2024, respectively.
57. Pursuant to Section 4007.105(a)(9)(B), the items requested in the Complaint Request Letters is information considered necessary by the Securities Commissioner to determine Respondents' business repute or qualifications.
58. Accordingly, a failure to provide information the Securities Commissioner has considered necessary to determine the business repute or qualifications or an investment adviser and/or investment adviser representative constitutes a basis for revoking Respondents' registrations with the Securities Commissioner.

Respondents have also not responded timely to Staff's communications to Respondents to resolve the fraudulent business practices and violation of the Board Rules.

59. Following the Inspection, Staff referred the matter to Petitioner's Legal and Investigations Division ("L&I Division").
60. After review of Staff's findings, the L&I Division made attempts to get in contact with Respondent Smith to schedule a deposition to take place on October 22, 2024 pursuant to Section 4007.053(c) of the Securities Act.
61. Specifically, the L&I Division attempted to reach out to Respondents via email and left a voice message on September 25, 2024.
62. L&I Division then followed up with Respondents via email on September 26, 2024 and received a response from Respondent Smith stating, "Yes Sir, that will be fine."
63. On September 30, 2024, L&I Division sent Respondent Smith a proffer of testimony letter via certified mail to Respondents' last known addresses.
64. Then on September 30, 2024 and October 21, 2024, L&I Division again followed-up with Respondents via email to confirm Respondent Smith's attendance at the deposition as well as to inquire whether Respondents would have representation of counsel present at the deposition.
65. On October 21, 2024, the L&I Division and Respondent Smith were able to have a phone call. Respondent Smith was still unable to confirm whether Respondents would have counsel present at the deposition.
66. On October 22, 2024, Respondent Smith appeared at the deposition on behalf of himself and Respondent SWA. Respondents did not have counsel present at the deposition.
67. After Respondent Smith was sworn into the testimony and during the Petitioner's reading of Respondents' rights prior to the questioning at the deposition, Respondent requested that the deposition be rescheduled so that Respondents could have counsel present at the deposition. Petitioner granted Respondents' request.

68. On October 22, 2024, after Petitioner agreed to reschedule the deposition, Petitioner reached out to Respondents through counsel ("Counsel") via contact information provided by Respondent Smith at the deposition.
69. On behalf of Respondents, Counsel responded immediately and stated that he had not yet been officially retained by Respondents but would let the L&I Division know once he was so that the deposition could be rescheduled.
70. On November 4, 2024, the L&I Division and Counsel had a call via Microsoft Teams.
71. During the call, the L&I Division provided Respondents, through Counsel, with options to resolve Respondents' fraudulent business practices and violation of the Board Rules, including entering into a Consent Order revoking Respondents' registrations with the Securities Commissioner and to repay certain clients identified in the Inspection.
72. Following the call, the L&I Division sent Respondents, through Counsel, draft versions of the Consent Order to review in order to resolve the matter without the necessity of a hearing.
73. The L&I Division routinely asked Respondents, through Counsel, for status updates regarding the review of the Consent Order. For example, the L&I Division reached out via email on November 12, 2024, November 13, 2024, November 18, 2024, and December 3, 2024.
74. Respondents, through Counsel, were responsive to the L&I Division's status updates and had a call on December 4, 2024 where Counsel expressed Respondents' position to dispute certain repayment amounts to clients included in the Consent Order resolution.
75. The L&I Division permitted Respondents to provide records in support of its position and after not having received any records yet, notified Counsel that the deadline for Respondents to provide these records is December 20, 2024.
76. On December 20, 2024, Respondents, through Counsel, provided some records from Respondents and offered to meet with Petitioner to answer any questions.
77. The records provided by Respondents seemed incomplete and did not fully address the total amount of misappropriated funds identified by Staff.
78. Because of this, the L&I Division responded immediately to again try to schedule a deposition.
79. The L&I Division did not hear back from Respondents until January 14, 2025, after the L&I Division sent a follow-up email to Respondents, through Counsel, on January 13, 2025 stating Petitioner would file this Notice of Hearing on the morning of January 15, 2025 if it did not hear back from them by the call of business day on January 14, 2025.

80. In Respondents' response, through Counsel, to the L&I Division on January 14, 2025, confirmed that "Monday, 1/27 works for the depo."
81. On January 24, 2025, Respondents, through Counsel, informed the L&I Division that they would not appear to the deposition.
82. As of the date of this filing, Petitioner has not been able to successfully conduct a deposition of Respondents nor have Respondents provided additional records to fully address the total amount of misappropriated funds identified by Staff.
83. The purpose of the deposition was to obtain information considered necessary by the Securities Commissioner to determine Respondents' business repute or qualifications, including for Petitioner and Respondents to address the discrepancies in the records Respondents did provide and clarify outstanding issues Staff identified in its Inspection, including Respondents' fraudulent business practices and violation of the Board Rules, in an effort to resolve the matter without the necessity of a hearing.
84. Pursuant to Section 4007.105(a)(9)(B), the information that would have been obtained through the deposition is information considered necessary by the Securities Commissioner to determine Respondents' business repute or qualifications.
85. Accordingly, a failure to provide information the Securities Commissioner has considered necessary to determine the business repute or qualifications or an investment adviser and/or investment adviser representative constitutes a basis for revoking Respondents' registrations with the Securities Commissioner.

REMEDIES

1. Based on the foregoing allegations, the Agency is praying for a proposal for decision for entry of an order that the registrations of Respondent SWA and Respondent Smith with the Securities Commissioner as an investment adviser and investment adviser representative, respectively, are REVOKED, that Respondent SWA and Respondent Smith immediately CEASE AND DESIST from engaging in fraudulent conduct, and that Respondent SWA and Respondent Smith REFUND certain clients.
2. Although this Notice of Hearing is praying for a proposal for decision for an order to revoke Respondent SWA and Respondent Smith's registrations, an order to cease and desist from engaging in fraudulent conduct, and to refund certain clients, nothing set forth herein shall preclude the Agency, consistent with applicable law and rule, from pursuing other enforcement remedies.

THE HEARING

3. The hearing will be held before the State Office of Administrative Hearings. It will commence at 9:00 AM (CT) on APRIL 4TH, 2025.

4. The State Office of Administrative Hearings may conduct the hearing via Zoom. Zoom is a video conferencing platform for meetings held through the internet. The State Office of Administrative Hearings will provide instructions for accessing the hearing via Zoom.
5. At the hearing, the Agency will present testimony and other admissible evidence in support of its prayer for a proposal for decision for the entry of an order that the registrations of Respondent SWA and Respondent Smith with the Securities Commissioner as an investment adviser and investment adviser representative, respectively, are REVOKED, that Respondent SWA and Respondent Smith immediately CEASE AND DESIST from engaging in fraudulent conduct, and for Respondent SWA and Respondent Smith REFUND certain clients. Respondents will be afforded the right to present such testimony and other evidence related thereto.

LEGAL NOTIFICATIONS

6. Legal authority and jurisdiction for this matter exist under Section 4007.102 of the Securities Act, Section 2003.021(b) of the Texas Government Code and Rule 155.51 of the SOAH Rules.
7. IF YOU DO NOT FILE A WRITTEN ANSWER OR OTHER WRITTEN RESPONSIVE PLEADING TO THIS NOTICE OF HEARING ON OR BEFORE THE 20TH DAY AFTER THE DATE ON WHICH THIS NOTICE WAS MAILED TO YOU OR PERSONALLY SERVED ON YOU, THE FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS IN THIS NOTICE COULD BE DEEMED ADMITTED, AND THE SECURITIES COMMISSIONER MAY DISPOSE OF THIS CASE WITHOUT A HEARING AND MAY GRANT THE RELIEF SOUGHT IN THIS NOTICE. THE RESPONSE MUST BE FILED IN AUSTIN, TEXAS, WITH THE SECURITIES COMMISSIONER AND THE STATE OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS, AND ALSO SERVED ON THE STAFF OF THE STATE SECURITIES BOARD. IF YOU FAIL TO ATTEND THE HEARING, EVEN IF A WRITTEN ANSWER OR OTHER RESPONSIVE PLEADING HAS BEEN FILED AND SERVED, THE FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS IN THIS NOTICE COULD BE DEEMED ADMITTED, AND THE SECURITIES COMMISSIONER MAY DISPOSE OF THIS CASE WITHOUT A HEARING AND MAY GRANT THE RELIEF SOUGHT IN THIS NOTICE.
